Victoria, 17th January, 1848.

abolition of Turkistan however are dissatisfied with the new rulers, and it may be believed that they will have the first opportunity of throwing off the yoke.

The arrival of Mr. Bonham, the new Governor of Hongkong, is looked forward to with some anxiety, as upon the measures he may adopt depend, in a great degree, the future prosperity of the colony.

It is to be regretted that the old fashioned, narrow-minded system of monopolies introduced by Sir John Bowring will be a garrison town and a military camp; but if he abolishes all restrictions on trade, they will look forward with confidence upon seeing it a great commercial entrepot.

Sir John Davis returns to England next month. On the evening of Thursday the Merchants of Hongkong entertained at the Club-House to Mr. Macgregor, Mr. D'Aguiar on the occasion of his being about to leave the Colony. W. Dent, Esq., in the Chair.

The General was received by a guard of Honor and the Regiment was in attendance during the landing of the Naval and Military detachments. The heads of the Naval and Military departments were invited to meet him.

After the Queen and Royal Family had been present, and drank with all the honors, the Chairman proposed the health of General D'Aguiar, which he introduced nearly as follows:—

"I now rise to propose the toast of the evening, and I am convinced will be received with enthusiasm. I have not here for the purpose of showing our respect and esteem for General D'Aguiar, but to thank him for the services he has so gallantly rendered to the Colony."

"The following toast was then given:— By D. Matheson, Esq.—The King of the French (acknowledged in French very graciously by Captain La Grange.)"

By T. W. L. Mackean, Esq.—The President of the United States (conspired by Consul Bush, acknowledging the compliments paid to the Americans, and assuring us, that in the event of reciprocity existed.)"

By A. Campbell, Esq.—General Staveley and the Garrison of Hongkong (acknowledged by Colonel Philips.)"

aided out of place, if I may a few words on a subject that is interesting to us all. When I look back to what Hongkong was, when I arrived here, and contemplate the progress of our island and commercial enterprise it has become, I cease to wonder at the fact, that which England holds dear and the nations of the world, the inexhaustible resources of her merchants, have done their utmost to have been the efforts of any Government had such been wanting.

"This is the entire power that has caused this City to spring completed out of the earth.—As the Imperial Commissioner Keying once emphatically remarked to me)—like a vast horn—amid rocks and wilds—and all the dead, a vastness of acres—almost of penitence, inherent in a new locality."

"The same power has raised the stately Mansions by which we are surrounded, and given a classic character to the progress of our improvement. This is not all. These Buildings themselves, and the daily display of capital invested in them, have encouraged the Government to fresh exertions, and have enabled it—under the sanction of the Legislature—to build and control a railway that threatened to ruin this Island almost unobtainable."

"And the regrets attendant on my departure,—for believe me, Gentlemen, regret, and pain, is the truest kind, at quitting this Colony, I naturally feel to revisit my native land. With the desire I naturally feel to revisit my native land. With the desire I naturally feel to revisit my native land. With the desire I naturally feel to revisit my native land."

"The following toast was then given:— By D. Matheson, Esq.—The King of the French (acknowledged in French very graciously by Captain La Grange.)"

By T. W. L. Mackean, Esq.—The President of the United States (conspired by Consul Bush, acknowledging the compliments paid to the Americans, and assuring us, that in the event of reciprocity existed.)"

By A. Campbell, Esq.—General Staveley and the Garrison of Hongkong (acknowledged by Colonel Philips.)"

By J. P. Edger, Esq.—Mrs D'Aguiar (feelingly responded to by General D'Aguiar.)"

By General D'Aguiar.—The Ladies of Hongkong (acknowledged by Colonel Philips.)"

In the course of the evening, Captain E. Julien de la Guierre of the French corvette Espagnole, begged leave of the Chairman to propose the health of our British and French Colonies, which he did in an eloquent and feeling speech, expressing the gratitude of the French nation for the attention shown to their countrymen when wrecked on the coast of Corea.
