Application for Registration of Trade Marks.

NOTICE is hereby given that Messrs. GIBB LIVINGSTON & COMPANY, carrying on business at Victoria in the Colony of Hongkong and elsewhere as Merchants have, on the 26th day of April 1906, applied for the registration in Hongkong in the Register of Trade Marks of the following Trade Marks:—

1. The representation of three Chinese ladies each of whom is depicted sitting in a punt holding a Chinese oar. At the back of the picture is also a punt with two children sitting in it each of whom is holding an oar. The water in which the punts are floating is full of water lilies. A willow tree is depicted growing and spreading its foliage over the pond. On the left hand side are three Chinese characters 採蓮圖 reading Tsoi Lin To meaning "The picture of gathering water lilies." At the top of the label are four Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co., and at the bottom are the initials "G. L. & Co."
2. The representation or illustration of two Chinese boys; one of the boys is depicted standing in a fighting attitude and the other is depicted supporting himself on his hands while his feet are raised in the air—on the ground is a Chinese sword, a Chinese spear and a pole—on the right hand side is a tree. At the top of the label are four Chinese characters 兩童舞力 reading "Leung Tung Mo Lik" meaning "Two boys exercising strength." At the bottom of the label are four other Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co.

3. The representation or illustration of a fairy with two female attendants standing on each side of her. The one standing on her right hand side is holding a wand and the other is holding a big fan. On the right hand side of the mark are the Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co. On the left hand side is depicted a small table upon which is standing a small red jar. A bronze incense burner is also standing on the table and in it is depicted a peacock's feather and a section of coral. At the bottom of the label are the initials "G. L. & Co."
4. The representation of an elephant which is being ridden by a man carrying a long spear to which is attached a banner. On the left of the trade mark there is depicted the representation of the sun upon which are the Chinese characters 太初混元 reading Tai Cho Wun meaning "In the beginning of the world at the time of confusion." Above the said representations is depicted the device of a Peacock which is being ridden by a goddess. On the left hand side at the top of the mark are the Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading "Yan Kee Yeung Hong" being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co. At the top of the label are the Chinese characters 大造乾坤 reading Tai Tso Kin Kwan meaning "The Great Architects for the formation of heaven and earth." At the bottom of the label are the initials "G. L. & Co."
5. The representation or illustration of an old Chinaman standing in a field with folded arms and clasping a long staff. Beside him is a large broken egg from out of which six Chinese children are depicted as emerging. Above which are written four Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co., and below which are the initials "G. L. & Co."
6. The representation or illustration of a beautiful Chinese young woman sitting in front of a window and holding a book in her right hand. A parrot is depicted standing on and is chained to a stand which is hanging under the window facing the girl. Above which are written four Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co., and below which are the initials "G. L. & Co."
7. The representation or illustration of part of a Chinese pavilion or balcony in which are depicted two Chinese ladies one sitting and the other standing. The latter is pointing to a Chinese man who is depicted standing in a garden holding in his left hand a flute. Above which and in the Border surrounding the Mark are written the Chinese characters 仁記洋行 reading Yan Kee Yeung Hong being the equivalent or Hong name in Chinese of Gibb Livingston & Co., and the Chinese characters 品蕭

8. The representation or illustration of three cash the edges of which overlap each other. In the centre hole of each cash is depicted the face of a Chinese boy. The three cash together are supported by a Chinese boy. On the three said cash are written the Chinese characters 年年發財 reading Nin Nin Fat Tsoi meaning "Making profit every year."
